

REVIEW OF TRADE.

Better Prices in All Commodities Seems the Rule in Every Section of the Country.

WOOL, PIG IRON AND COTTON.

Bar Iron Demand is Enormous, and Contracts for Immediate Delivery Out of the Question.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade to-morrow will say:

The most noteworthy features of the time is the rise in prices. Cotton rose on Wednesday to 7.31 cents with much excitement, putting the price 2 1/2 cents higher than a year ago and yet it was still higher in September, 1897. Wool has risen relatively more about 10 per cent in two weeks and the average of 100 quotations by Choates Brothers is higher than it has been at any other time since May, 1893. Pig iron has risen further, $25 being quoted for anthracite No. 1, the highest price since January, 1893. Both sides are at the highest point since January, 1893, having risen all the year very reaction.
Prices of products have not correspondingly advanced. Leather and boots and shoes were higher in November, 1898, than they are now, cotton goods were higher in January, 1898, woolen goods in July, 1894, and even the products of iron, though greatly advanced are not as high as they were in January, 1890. Such wide discrepancies in advance cause much embarrassment, but are the natural characteristic of a rise which is mainly due, not to concerted action in any trade, but the pressure of a consuming demand the greatest ever known, which for the time exceeds supplies, though very unequally. Its results begin to justify the conservative feeling which finds expression in many branches of business.

Iron Lead.

The iron industry, which has led all others in the advance, now leads the way toward a readjustment of values.
While contracts for pig cover the entire product of the most important districts for six to nine months in advance, many of the consuming works in some lines approach the end of their orders, and have new competition to meet, so that sheets have fallen $4 per ton at Pittsburgh and $9 from the highest point in September and plates are $5 lower there and $3 at Philadelphia. At the same time bars are $1 per ton higher both at Philadelphia and Pittsburgh, the demand being enormous and at Chicago very heavy contracts have been made for car and implement works. A bridge combination is thought likely to effect future business in structural shapes which contemplates large for the season.
A break in the London market continues large for the season. A break in the London market depressed tin and sales were made at 28 cents.

Boot and shoe makers are generally getting about the 10 cents per pair advance they have held necessary, and have as large contracts in most lines as they now wish to close, in view of the uncertainty about materials. Leather continues very strong and in that also dealers are not anxious for greater commitments, but consuming demand causes large sales in advance of production.

Wool has been very strong again, though sales at Boston were but 12,404, 000 pounds against 21,557,500 the week before, for large transactions elsewhere has risen the weeks aggregate to 20, 181,500 and buyers hold firmly for outside prices. Nothing like the sensational rise of last week has continued and the buying by manufacturers is slower though still large. This and accounts of the goods trade indicate that an extraordinary business is expected for the next season. The rise in cotton as yet helps manufacturers whose contracts cover production well ahead, but the buying has been mainly by traders and based largely on expectation of a very low estimate of yield by the department. While last year's official estimate was not highly accurate the whole trade here and abroad then counted on a large crop and was right.

Wheat has not been very active nor strong, although western receipts have much declined, being 4,921,997 bushels for the week against 9,224,045 last year.
Exports are also smaller, the Atlantic 2,633,537 bushels, flour included, against 1,016,961 last year. The decrease in foreign demand may be ascribed in part to heavy previous exports, but perhaps still more to the great movement of corn, 3,453,194 bushels for the week against 2,062,331 last year. Corn advanced about as much as wheat felt, though with prospect of a heavy yield.
Failures for the week have been 157 in the United States against 211 last year and 23 in Canada against 26 last year.

Meetings for Men.

The young men's meeting this evening at 8 o'clock, at the Young Men's Christian Association building, will be of special interest.

To-morrow is the beginning of the week of prayer for young men, observed annually by the Young Men's Christian Association. A men's meeting will be held at 4 o'clock, to which all men are invited. Rev. R. R. Bigger will give an address on "Neglected Opportunities." The music will be an attractive feature.

thanks to Celery King, I have had but one headache in the last eleven months. I know that what cured me will help others.—Mrs.

Dr. Greene's NERVURA

WEAK, FADING WOMEN.

Depositing Health and Beauty Called

Back by Dr. Greene's NERVURA.

What is more valuable than the gift of a woman whose beauty is fading? Such unusual condition is due to impairment of the nervous system and weakness and impurity of the blood. Among the early symptoms are severe headaches, indigestion, drowsy feelings, nervousness and persistent attacks of chills. Relief can only be obtained by a complete revitalization of the system through the use of Dr.
Greene's NERVURA, blood and nerve remedy.
It is a pure, natural, and safe medicine.
Beware of cheap imitations.
Dr. Greene's NERVURA is sold by all druggists.

SOCIETY.

Chief interest for the coming week extending all over the city, centers in the "Book Carnival," to be held at Arion hall, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, for the benefit of the Day Nursery. Because of that very little else is booked for the latter part of the week. The large social affairs of the week will be the Married Ladies' Euchre reception at the Carroll Club, Monday evening; the Whitaker-Rossing, and Cecil-Sehon out-of-town weddings and other notable entertainments, including the Wilson entertainment of the Spinsters and the Moffat entertainment for the Debutantes. The week just ending contained many functions, all of which were beautifully carried through; prominent were the Moffat-Storer-Tausig afternoon entertainment, the Hearne dinner, the McMaisters entertainment, the McLure dinner, the Island Ladies Club reception, the Carroll Club entertainment; and the Brice party.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Hearne, of Island Place, beautifully entertained in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Julian J. Hearne, of Pittsburgh, who were McLure guests during the week.

Mrs. Wiley Irwin entertained the Island Euchre Club Wednesday afternoon, the prize winners were Mrs. Fred Parke, Mrs. Charles N. Hancher, Miss Paul and Miss Alice McCabe. The organization will be entertained Wednesday, November 22, by Mrs. F. M. Weis-ling.

Dr. and Mrs. R. O. McMaisters entertained the Island Whist Club Thursday evening at their home on North Chapline street.

house guest of Mrs. A. F. Husted, at the "Severn."

Miss Eleanor Brice, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Brice, entertained the Rabbit's Foot Club Thursday afternoon at the home of her parents on Sixteenth street, in honor of her house guest, Miss Myers, of Harrisburg, Pa. The organization is made up of the following younger society girls: Miss Elizabeth Good, Miss Jessie Moffat, Miss Josephine Waterhouse, Miss Edith Carr, Miss Martha Baird Caldwell, Miss Nellie Stiffe, Miss Elizabeth Carr, Miss Bessie Harrison, Miss Mary Simpson, Stiffel, Miss Mary Caldwell. The prize winners were Miss Elizabeth Good, Miss Martha Baird Caldwell and Miss Virginia Moffat. The club will be entertained Thursday, November 23rd, at the Good home on Fourteenth street.

The Debutante Club will be entertained next Wednesday evening by Miss Jessie Moffat, at the T. C. Moffat home, on South Chapline street.

Wheeling society will be represented at the Cecil-Sehon wedding at Huntington, West Virginia, and at the Whitaker-Rossing wedding at Wilkesbarre, Pa. next Wednesday. Several elegant post-nuptial affairs are now being planned to be given in this city immediately upon the conclusion of the wedding journeys, in honor of both couples.

Colonel and Mrs. Robert White and Mrs. Edward Bowle are in Richmond, the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Chiles Ferrell, nee Miss Kate White, of this city. Mrs. White is a Wheeling delegate to the Daughters of the Confederacy convention.

A delicious, dainty and hot supper will be served at the Y. M. C. A. hall on December 7th, under the auspices of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Young Men's Christian Association. A concert will follow later in the evening in which the best Wheeling talent available will take part.

The Married Ladies' Euchre Club had one of its most delightful afternoons of the season yesterday, at the T. C. Moffat residence, on South Chapline street, with Mrs. Moffat, Mrs. John H. Storer and Mrs. J. E. Tassig as hostesses. The large parlor and reception hall were splendidly adapted for the convenient placing of the many tables required, and in keeping were all appointments.
The prizes were won by Mrs. Morron, Mrs. Barclay, Mrs. Stallman and Mrs.
Wise. Among the guests present were Mrs. Barrett, house guest of Miss Florence Ott, at Echo Point; Mrs. Barclay and Miss Barclay, of the Severn; Miss Fimdenberg, house guest of Mrs. N. E.
Whitaker; Miss Bassell, house guest of as hostesses.

the coming week is booked for Monday night, when the Married Ladies' Euchre Club entertains at the Carroll Club.
"The game is called" for 8 o'clock sharp.

Wheeling society will be fully represented at the theatre Tuesday evening

HERE AND THERE.

Give way, all good people, while the conquering hero comes.
To the ra-ra of the trumpet and the drit-ble of the drums:
Bow low and meek before him, the uncrowned king of fall; Great the tar and soldier, but the half back beats them all!

With bunches of rough hair that o'er his shoulders droop, He strides among his fellows, the one bird in the coop;
A sweater barred in colors, pants baggy at the knees, There's a murrain down the side-lines—"What a mighty man is he!"

He's the whole thing in the papers, in the house and on the street.
His name and fame are frequent on cherry lips and sweet.
He sways a tyrant's scepter from his proud and lofty throne, He seems to shine unfading in a circle all his own.

But the dog must have his innings, and so the fool ball man; There's been no trust on pleasure since this old world began;
And if the half back's honors should seem more than his due, Recall the bumps and bruises he bravely scrimmaged through.

Just now the air is charged with political electricity. The elections in several states last Tuesday cast shadows over the coming events one year hence within the borders of West Virginia, and the observant individual may see the run in the thing already if he distends his optics. He may perceive the cordiality of the prospective nominee, which is beginning to ooze out.
The aforesaid cordiality can't be repressed with a primary due in the spring. There must be the little halt on the street corner, the fervent hand-shake and the careful solicitude as to the health of the humble voter and his family. All these things are beginning to appear, and will be duly continued with increasing ardor throughout the cooler months. There is some consolation, therefore, for a cold winter. But the tactics of the candidates are not new; it's the old, old story. Of more interest and entertainment is to note the entrance into the political arena for the first time of the candidate. Such a smooth, premeditated entrance, and so laden with rosette dreams of promise and glory.

He is a young man, for an old man has no business making a preliminary plunge. It mattereth not who first put the bee in his bonnet; it gets there.
Slowly and surely the tentacles of future power and greatness enfold him, and day by day his thoughts wander on up over the rising ascents of fame. His ambition takes a calmer view of the surroundings in the realization of the fact that "mixing" counts, and so the youthful impressario collects how mighty a factor is a wide acquaintance. In his mind's eye he sees a successful political virtuoso, and he thereby adopts some of his ways and means. In a brief spell, his name is presented for membership in this or that fraternity, and soon he has several on his list.
Gradually his name finds its way into the newspapers in connection with some capacity. He is seen looming up at divers gatherings and a pleased surprise is expressed at finding him such a jolly fellow, which is otherwise expressed by saying of him the familiar "Eddie" or "Tommy," whereas his full cognomen governed strictly before. He learns also to drop any decisive opinions, and to agree on any subject with anybody. He learns to keep his mouth shut, while appearing to stand for everything. He learns that one man's vote is as good as another's, and that the ward workers count for more than eloquent orators.
He learns more than that, but he knows nothing until the ballots are counted.

Mad as a hornet aptly describes Night Watchman, "Wally" Lukens' condition one morning this week, when he found himself a prisoner in a ground floor boudoir of a Market street newspaper ranch. The joke was one the night watchman failed to relish after a two-hours' confinement in a 44 room, with no companion other than his rough rooming at him the familiar "Eddie"
or "Tommy," whereas his full cog-
nomen governed strictly before. He
count for more than eloquent orators.
nothing until the ballots are counted.

They are teasing a young lady in a South Side industrial establishment, by enquiring the Shamrock-Columbia race, inquiring how they fired the yachts off, and wondered if the stock of naphtha didn't take up most of the hold in either craft; but her ignorance in such matters is not ram of able; especially when account is taken of the high school boy who asked Principal Work yesterday if the Boers had tasks.

That life is not a dreary monotone is shown by the clippings from last week's City County Star:

I. P. Asbury says Miss Myrtle Meador has too much learning for his white-e-eyed boy.
Tommy Moore is building a chimney.

bank were demolished by an explosion of dynamite touched off last night by robbers, who then looted the place, securing $600 in money and several thousand dollars in notes and checks.

Texas Hanging.

STEPHENSVILLE, Texas, Nov. 10.— Thomas Wright, an ex-convict, was hanged to-day. He killed John Adams, a farmer, because he believed the latter was the cause of his being sent to the pen.

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND RELIEVES PAIN.

Mrs. Margaret Bethel, of Brainerd, Minn., writes:

"For thirty years I have been a great sufferer from neuralgia in the head and also with rheumatism in the whole body. I began taking Paine's Celery Compound, and soon found that I was much better. Before taking the Compound, my life was such a burden that I almost prayed to lay it down. I was bedfast every two weeks with horrible pain in the head, back and neck until I was almost crazy. I am able to do harder work and more of it to-day than for twenty-five years. I am really enjoying life again, thanks to Paine's Celery Compound. I am satisfied that my life has been prolonged many years by its use.

Paine's Celery Compound is a great reconstructant. The weakened, inflamed nerves are built up and the nervous force increased. The stomach, liver and kidneys are kept in healthy action. The body is kept free of acid blood and morbid waste material; is made healthy and free from pain.

BRIDGEPORT HAPPENINGS.

Events of a Day in the Town at the End of the Bridge.

Contractor Berry will commence paving the extension of Lincoln avenue through the Koehnline property, next week. It is the intention of the contractor to rush the work through before bad weather sets in.

The Bridgeport football team will play the Buckeyes, of Belleair, on the grounds of the latter, this afternoon.
Both teams are strong and a good game is assured.

Miss Stella Lloyd, who has been the guest of Mrs. William Neff, returned to her home at Mingo yesterday.

Miss Lottie Duncan very pleasantly entertained a number of friends at her home in Kirkwood yesterday.

Miss Maggie Newland, of Steubenville, is spending a few days with relatives at a visit with relatives at Sistersville.

W. J. Sims, of Cameron, was the guest of friends in this city yesterday.

Mrs. George Palmer, of Mannington, is the guest of relatives in Aetna.

Horace Hanson, of Pittsburgh was a business caller in town yesterday.

Nathan Holloway was in Flushing yesterday on business.
